“Of Aaron, the high priest of Israel, it is written,
He ‘shall bear the names of the children of Israel in the breastplate of judgment upon his heart, when he goeth in unto the holy place, for a memorial before the Lord continually.’

What a beautiful and expressive figure this is of the unchanging love of Christ for His church!
Our great High Priest, of whom Aaron was a type, bears His people upon His heart.”
