Draw a diagram showing the steps taken with the sin offering.
Do a parallel picture of how it works in our life today.

“The great end of His [Christ’s] mission was to be a sin-offering for the world, that by the shedding of blood an atonement might be made for the whole race of men.

With a heart ever touched with the feelings of our infirmities, an ear ever open to the cry of suffering humanity, a hand ever ready to save the discouraged and despairing, Jesus, our Saviour,

‘went about doing good’ (Acts 10:38).”
