“It would be well to have a trespass-offering box in sight,
and have all the household agree that whosoever speaks unkindly of another or utters angry words,
shall drop into the trespass-offering box
a certain sum of money.

This would put them upon their guard against the wicked words which work injury, not only to their brethren, but to themselves.

No man of himself can tame the unruly member, the tongue;
but God will do the work for him who comes unto Him with contrite heart in faith and with humble supplication.

By the help of God, bridle your tongues;
talk less, and pray more.”
